NYS Summer School MEDIA ARTS

The NYS Office of Cultural Education has announced the location and tentative dates for the 2017 NYS Summer School of the Media Arts.

Applications and other forms are on this site:

<http://www.oce.nysed.gov/nysssa/media-arts>

The adjudication process is ongoing — do encourage your students to apply for this unique opportunity to discover and engage in creative exploration.

Five disciplines are planned: Video, Film, Computer Animation and Intermedia, Digital Photography and Electronic Sound Art.

All classes teach fundamental, formal and aesthetic principles. Classes involve extensive teaching of the technical skills associated with each individual discipline. The first 2 1/2 weeks are generally spent learning foundations, history, and technical skills, and completing assigned exercises.

Students attend nightly lectures which may include film screenings, visiting artists and critiques. The last week and 1/2 is spent developing and finishing individual final projects and preparing for the closing day exhibit and screening.

Ghen Zando Dennis, a nationally known media artist, is the Artistic Director of the School for 2017.

NYSSSA School of Media Arts is tentatively scheduled to be held at Alfred State College from July 2 - 28, 2017

The Scholastic Art and Writing Association Announces The National Medal Winners

For the 6th year in a row, students in the John Jay HS (Hopewell Junction / LHR) Photo Media program have earned National Medals from the Scholastic Art and Writing Association.

Emad Jamal and Olivia Casablanca are joining a legacy of celebrated authors and artists including Andy Warhol, Sylvia Plath, Truman Capote, Richard Avedon, Robert Redford, Lena Dunham, and other past National Medal Winners.

More than 330,000 works of art and writing were submitted by students in grades 7-12 this year. Earning a medal of this distinction places Emad and Olivia within the top 1% of submissions.

Both students are enrolled in Robyn Talbot Howard's Photography 3 class, and both are juniors.

Emad Jamal will be honored at the Gold Award ceremony at Carnegie Hall on June 8th.

Congratulations to Olivia, Jamal and Ms. Talbot; this is indeed, a great honor and achievement.

Olivia Casabianca earned Silver for Mountains and Valleys

Emad Jamal earned Silver for Blow

Emad Jamal earned Gold for Pirate Brown

CAPITAL REGION MEDIA ARTS FESTIVAL 2017

The Capital Region Media Arts Festival was held on Wednesday, April 5th at Niskayuna High School. Fifteen school districts from across the region submitted a total of 169

2-D artworks, which are now on exhibit in the Nisk-ART Gallery. In addition to the 2-D artwork, examples of Game Design, 3-D printing and Electronic Music were also displayed. The festival included a keynote presentation by Matthew McElligott, chair of the Art + Design program at The Sage Colleges along with the screening of 55 student films in 9 various categories.

Western New York Flick Fest

Hello Colleagues and Filmmakers,

I am pleased to announce the call for work for the 17th Annual Nichols School Flick Fest Student Film and Video Festival. The Festival accepts entries by middle and high school students from all over Western New York. Student work submitted to the festival is judged by a panel of student filmmakers and curated into a single evening screening.

Participation in the Flick Fest gives student filmmakers the opportunity to showcase their work to a Western New York audience, meet fellow filmmakers, and view work by their filmmaking peers. The festival committee works to make the evening entertaining and informative. In addition to the screening, a few entries are singled out to receive awards.

This year's Flick Festival will take place on Thursday, April 27th at 7pm at the North Park Theater in Buffalo, New York. The event is free and open to the public.

The deadline for all entries is Thursday, April 6th. The entries must be sent in using a flash drive, USB, or Dropbox, We-Transfer file. Entries must be under five minutes in length; however, excerpts of longer pieces will be considered.
